Derek Marin Cut the Line TLM001

Noah Pred and Evan Marc's audio lovechild, Thoughtless Music, is born from the digital womb with 'Cut the Line' by New York's Derek Marin. Following his releases on Surreal, Matter:/Form, and Intrinsic Design, raw grooves form the basis of a late-night juggernaut. Reinterpretations of the original come from a host of established and upcoming artists, ranging from refined minimalism and emotive slow-burners to percussive electro and adventurous technical work-outs. Turn off the lights, turn up the volume, and prepare to cut the line...
