Let Go

Thoughtless Music is proud to present the debut EP from Louise Gauvreau, a.k.a. Maus. One of Montreal's most consistent and in-demand DJs over the past decade, her first studio outing displays an intricate production sensibility balanced with innate knowledge of the needs of the dance floor. 'About Time' is a house-infused romp through playful late-night moods, while 'My So Called Friends' is a slightly darker yet no less captivating affair. Noah Pred's remix highlights the techno elements of the original, while Evan Marc gives it a minimalistic twist. Bursting onto the global scene like a seasoned pro, it's time to let go: get ready for Maus...
