Eric Downer
Pursuit & Recovery

Following his collaboration with Jeff Milligan on Revolver, we figured it was finally time to unleash Eric Downer's long-awaited debut EP. Delivering on the promise hinted at with his prior Thoughtless appearances, he drops a trio of throbbing, minimalistic techno jams. Ranging from the funky-up synth workout of 'Ottomatic' to the deranged analog pulse of 'Pursuit', Downer makes it to the finish line in fine form - groove and sense of humor firmly intact. His insistent percussion and spacious sound-design give 'Recovery' a distinctive late-night flavor, while Audiomatique alumnus and fellow Canadian J Hunsberger wraps things up on remix duties with his seductive extended rework. A solid pursuit from beginning to end, Toronto's Eric Downer has arrived...
