TLM019
Limaçon
Rubber Bump
w/Mike Shannon Remix

Infused with effortless funk, Limaçon's latest is yet another display of technical prowess from one of California's finest. 'Bass Drop' rides a rather large low end while sharp edits are interspersed with fluid measures of playfulness to create a floor-filling dance environment. The title track is a late-night rumbler, building steadily for its entire length while melding atmospheric trickery around a solid central theme. Taking time out from running his Cynosure label, Mike Shannon turns his shuffled-up minimalist take on 'Rubber Bump' into a sly tech-house burner. Finally, 'Rundown' favors an underground approach with its breathing bass and percussive focus drawing attention to its expansive rhythm. Rapidly earning a reputation as one of the hottest talents on the North American scene, Limaçon is all too pleased to provide another Thoughtless bump for the dancefloor..
