Smell Good

with Arthur Oskan, Karri O. & Noah Pred remixes

thoughtless 024

Not a moment too soon, Thoughtless is pleased to present our perfect track for the summer from Italy's Sonothèque. Following releases on Tenax and Safari Electronique, Alexi and David present a lush deep house groove - both the original and 'Feel Good' arrangements are richly textured, full of bounce and custom-built for the open airs. Remixes come courtesy of three Toronto residents from the Thoughtless stable: Arthur Oskan (a.k.a. Myers Briggs) turns in a chugging analog techno jam for the peak hours, Karri O. does a bleepy minimal groove reduction, and Noah Pred provides a versatile tech-house edit that stays true to key elements of the original. As temperatures rise across the northern hemisphere, this special release is designed to keep your dancefloor fresh, smiling and smelling good...
