Rodux
Iron Fan

Thoughtless presents the debut EP from secretive Canadian artist Rodux. After figuring prominently on Thoughtless Times v3, 'Iron Fan' combines his multimedia talents as sound engineer, painter and trained musician, resulting in a delicate yet edgy track with plenty of bounce. The release contains four radically different reworks - from techno impresario Chris Fortier, veteran house producer Joe Silva, Spain's emerging Edgar de Ramon, and Rodux himself - that range from relentless big room grooves to sleek after-hours essentials. Finally, 'Orchids' rounds out the collection as a deeply blunted minimalist excursion drenched with murky atmosphere...
